AITKEN-) CONNELL, John Vaille Douglas

He taught at the Mount Eden School where a memorial brass tablet was placed in the classroom where he worked. Trooper Connell had been a shorthand teacher in Harle Giles' Business Training College. He was popular with his company and was thought highly of by his officers.

Trooper Connell was shot through the heart during the charge of New Zealanders under Captain Maddocks at Slingsfontein. and is buried at Slingsfontein.

TWO YEARS ON TREK: The Royal Sussex Regiment in the Second Boer War 1899 -1902
by Louis Eugene De Moulin

This book was written by the most part by the late Lt. Col Du Moulin and was completed and published by his comrades as the most fitting memorial to a gallant soldier. It recounts the experiences of the Royal Sussex Regiment throughout its service during the Second Anglo-Boer War in South Africa.
